I am resubmitting my support for the Loxwood Neighbourhood Plan following the legal challenges made by Crownhall Estates.

The Loxwood NP was arrived at after a long and thorough process led by the Parish Council and an overwhelming vote in favour of the plan at the July 2014 Referendum.

It is a plan that has been democratically arrived at and it should not be allowed to be amended by a 3rd party, especially on the grounds of a procedural technicality.

I want the village to grow and prosper in a way that the majority of residents have bought in to and not allow ad hoc developments which undermine the wishes of the Village.

When the Loxwood NP has been completed, we will no doubt have another look at what else needs to be done in the village, but until then, let us just complete this phase without constant challenges and counter submissions.
