Having read the full plan, I wholeheartedly support it.

The policies have clearly been well thought through and being based upon the extensive consultation which has taken place throughout the Parish, they strongly support the vision of the wider community.

It is my view that the wide-ranging dialogue which has taken place over the past 6 years has enabled those responsible for assembling the final plan to put a document together which reflects the distilled views of the community as a whole. For this, all involved deserve the gratitude and on-going support of the residents of the area.

Given the extensive nature of this process, I fully expect the plan to be strongly supported by the members of the community when it is eventually put to them in a referendum.

I thank all involved for their hard work and perseverance to this stage.
